

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS AND BASIC CHARACTERISTICS

AK47/AKM detachable magazines for 7,62x39mm Mod.43 ammunition

Main Characteristics: The standard steel detachable 30-rounds magazine intended for AKM/AKMS assault rifle designed for 7,62x39mm Mod.43 small-arms ammunition of all types has light sheet-metal body with prominent reinforcing ribs weighing only 0.33 kg empty. It is made from high-quality steel sheets welded together with blacking surface protection. The magazine is suitable for filling by all kind of 7,62x39mm Mod.43 ammunition of all types and producers around the world. It is intended and can be used for AK-47, AKM, AKMS incl. all other modifications of AK-47/AKM/M70 rifles (romainan, bulgarian, hungarian, belarussian, serbian etc.) as well as for RPK/M72 incl. its all other modifications infantry light machine gun. It is reusable, very sturdy and solid design and production intended for harsh conditions.

AKM/AKMS Detachable Magazine Tactical-Technical Characteristics
Magazine Type	Detachable steel box curved magazine
Magazine Producer	Tula Arms Plant & Izhmash – Russia (Former Soviet Union)
Caliber/Cartridge	Standard 7,62x39mm Mod.43 (all types and producers)
Weapon models	AK-74, AKM, AKMS, M70, RPK, M72 and all other modifications
Weight of magazine	0,33 kg (empty), 0,82 kg (filled with 30 rounds)
Magazine material	Ribbed stamped-steel
Magazine capacity	30 rounds